

Flash Feedback Results: Professional Development in GEM

What best describes your job level?

Do you have a budget for professional development?

Other (write-in response):

- I can make room in my budget for professional development if/as needed (within reasonable limits).
- We did, however we just experienced a 5% budget cut for the remainder of the fiscal year and that was the first to go.
- We have built into our budget, the cost to attend conferences, but not a separate line devoted to professional development.
